What my Clients say about me...

Timothy is a dedicated, full time realtor who has been a resident of St. Catharines since 1979. He started in real estate at the age of 21, and since that time he has devoted his life to the career he loves.

Energetic, outgoing and professional . . . these words describe Timothy Salisbury. He expresses his enthusiasm for life in both work and play. He's an avid golfer, recently took up pickleball, played and coached hockey for years, tries to play guitar, always listening to podcasts or music and works out year round at a local gym or when travelling.

When you need real estate service that is personal and knowledgeable, look no further than Timothy Salisbury.

When it is time to sell, Timothy has the tools and marketing techniques to help you sell your home quickly, easily and for the best possible price. He'll apply his expertise by providing you with a free computerized market analysis to determine your home's value in today's market. Timothy will mobilize the entire real estate community to find a buyer for your home.

Once listed, your house will receive maximum exposure immediately, not only locally but world wide!!

Timothy's success rate of selling your home once listed is 89% (based on 2025 results).

If you are a home buyer, Timothy will help you define your needs and specifications in a personal, confidential one-on-one buyer appointment. Then, because Timothy knows the inventory and previews homes listed for sale in St. Catharines, he'll show you only those that meet your criteria. Timothy will be there every step of the way, providing efficient, reliable service.

"48 hours was all it took for our house to sell (conditionally). Some people say third time's a charm!! The Salisbury Team has always had our best interest at heart with all 3 of our moves and sales. The team's knowledge, game plan and thoughtfulness from start to finish is above and beyond anything you could hope for."

-The Somers Family

"Despite a soft spring market we were able to find a buyer in just over a months time.

Over 30 years and Tim still gives you his personal service. Thanks once again!"

-Mark & Linda Stevens

"I have known Timothy for over 25 years and know he is a man of his word. When the time came for me to sell my home, he was the first person to come to my mind to list it. He was very professional and respectful, as was his team. They all worked hard and did indeed sell my home in the timeline we agreed to."
